Hi Angie,

After checking with Eric Autry, I spoke with Eric Nuchoms about the containers left at 3605 Airport Way S. I confirmed this morning that the containers are on private property and we can't use our illegal dumping department in this case. Eric Autry recommended that I contact the property owner to alert them to the abandoned waste and let them know that they could dispose of it properly at the transfer station.

The property records only list Holiday Resales as the property owner with no phone number or mailing list. We checked their utility billing information and it listed Marty Nelson McCutchen Group LLC as the account holder but still without a phone number, but here was a mailing address listed as 925 4th Ave, Seattle, WA 98104, Suite 2288. I found a number through google for Martin Nelson at the McCutchen Group as 206-816-6850. I left a message and I'm waiting to hear back. I advised them on the message that the material could be properly disposed through the City transfer station.

Thanks,

Brian Robinson
